

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA ACT, 1935

Faariya Imdad

Government of India Act, 1935

---

1. Historical Background
2. Introduction
3. Salient Features of Government of India Act, 1935:
  - I. Comprehensive written constitution
  - II. Federation
  - III. Unitary constitution
  - IV. Diarchy at the Centre
  - V. Provincial Autonomy
  - VI. Responsible Government
  - VII. Extensive powers given to Governors and Governor-General of India
  - VIII. Provinces-separate legal entities
  - IX. Federal Executive
  - X. Discretionary powers of Governors
  - XI. Federal Legislature
  - XII. Establishment of Federal court
  - XIII. 11 Governor Provinces
  - XIV. Creation of New Province of Sindh
  - XV. Creation of new Province of Orissa
  - XVI. Provincial Legislature
  - XVII. Checks on Legislature
  - XVIII. Method to join Federation
  - XIX. Jurisdiction of Federation
  - XX. Three Fold Division of Functions:
    - i. Federal

- ii. Provincial
- iii. Concurrent.

4. Conclusion.