

Symposium 2019 - Accommodation and Expenses

Travel costs and accommodation of participants of the Symposium will be covered by the Pakistan College of Law. Costs covered will be for the participant ONLY. No additional guests (spouses, children) will be accommodated financially. The particulars of the coverage are as follows:

Travel Costs

- Travel fare only, by land (bus, train, personal vehicle) will be covered.
- Participants will be required to reach their accommodation in Lahore on their own accord. Commute will be provided to the venue of the Symposium and back to the hotel.
- Participants will be required to produce receipts in order to ensure that they are refunded for their travel expenses.

Accommodation in Lahore

- Accommodation for the participant will be provided for two nights in Lahore.
- If participants would like to bring along additional guests, arrangements for accommodation can be made for them at the participant's own expense.
If participants would like to prolong their stay in Lahore after the symposium, favourable rates can be negotiated with the hotel for this duration.
- Meals for the participant will be covered for their stay.